

Handling of Complaints

AXA Investment Managers Paris

AXA Investment Managers Paris continuously strives to provide you with the highest quality of service possible.

However, aware that problems can sometimes arise, our complaint handling management framework is there to help you.

Our framework has two main objectives:

- Improve customer satisfaction through a reasonable and quick handling of complaints we receive.
- Improve our products, procedures, and the operation of our organisation. By identifying weaknesses and potential problems, complaint monitoring helps us to implement the appropriate corrective action needed.

The purpose of this document is to explain how to submit a complaint. It is also designed to inform you on our commitments and provide you with all helpful information about our complaint handling procedure and available remedies you have.
